

Women & Child Support Unit, Women Police Station and Anti Human Trafficking Unit

Sr. No.	Date	Detail of Event
1.	23.01.2015	A special drive was conducted by Anti Human Trafficking Unit, to identify, track, locate, rescue and rehabilitate the children who were either kidnapped or left the home at their own and have been subjected to abuse, exploitation, employed as child labour. During the drive, 34 other Children who had earlier been reported missing have been traced out on the initiative taken by IGP/UT/Chandigarh.
2.	07.10.2015	Anti Human Trafficking Unit of Chandigarh Police launched an Operation called "Operation Muskan" on 19.11.2014 and during the drive, 50 children have been traced out. National Conference on Human Trafficking was conducted at Hotel Ashoka, New Delhi where Hon'ble Home Minister of India awarded commendation certificates to top performers Insp. Karam Chand, SI Ajit Singh, HC Rakesh Kumar, HC Laxay Kumar and HC Pardeep Kumar.
3.	07.10.2015	Anti Human Trafficking Unit of Chandigarh Police launched an Operation called "Operation Muskan" on 19.11.2014 and during the drive, 50 children have been traced out. National Conference on Human Trafficking was conducted at Hotel Ashoka, New Delhi where Hon'ble Home Minister of India awarded commendation certificates to top performers Insp. Karam Chand, SI Ajit Singh, HC Rakesh Kumar, HC Laxay Kumar and HC Pardeep Kumar.
4.	1.1.2016	Anti Human Trafficking Unit of Chandigarh Police under the guidance of Sh. A.S Cheema, IPS, DIG/UT/Chandigarh and supervision of Smt. Rashmi Sharma Yadav DSP/W&CSU has launched "Operation Smile-II" w.e.f 1st January 2016 to 31st January 2016. This is an initiative of Sh. R.P Upadhyay, IPS, IGP/UT/Chandigarh, to identify, track, locate, rescue and rehabilitate the children who were either been kidnapped or left the home at their own and may be subjected to abuse, exploitation, employed as child labour here and there. 24 teams have been constituted briefed and deployed by SI Ajit Singh I/C AHTU to cover all important and potential places in India i.e Punjab, Haryana, Uttarakand, Uttar Pardesh, Rajasthan, Delhi, Noida, Gaziabad etc. and advised to make sincere efforts to achieve the success.
5.	1.1.2016	Anti Human Trafficking Unit of Chandigarh Police under the guidance of Sh. A.S Cheema, IPS, DIG/UT/Chandigarh and supervision of Smt. Rashmi Sharma Yadav DSP/W&CSU has launched "Operation Smile-II" w.e.f 1st January 2016 to 31st January 2016. This is an initiative of Sh. R.P Upadhyay, IPS, IGP/UT/Chandigarh, to identify, track, locate, rescue and rehabilitate the children who were either been kidnapped or left the home at their own and may be subjected to abuse, exploitation, employed as child labour here and there. 24 teams have been constituted briefed and deployed by SI Ajit Singh I/C AHTU to cover all important and potential places in India i.e Punjab, Haryana, Uttarakand, Uttar Pardesh, Rajasthan, Delhi, Noida, Gaziabad etc. and advised to make sincere efforts to achieve the success.
6.	16.01.2016	Chandigarh Police has organised a complaint redressal camp in Women Police Station, Sec-17, Chandigarh. Approximately 300 persons attended the camp. The W/SSP, UT Chandigarh Dr. Sukhchain Singh Gill listened to the grievances of parties patiently. The main issues were related to matrimonial disputes: domestic violence, beating, dowry demands etc. After counseling 15 parties compromised for living together and some complaints were referred for further counseling/verifications by the concerned Police officials/mediation centre. 04 complaints were referred for registration of FIRs. In the year 2015, total 2003 complaints were received in Women Police Station, out of which 1092 complaints were disposed of by way of compromise either to live together or mutual separation. 129 cases were registered in year 2015. The W/SSP/UT has directed the police official to be more professional and give proper hearing to the public person/complainants. The W/SSP/UT also appreciated the work of police officials of WPS.

7.	27.01.2016	Anti Human Trafficking Unit (AHTU) and Women Police Station jointly organized a public awareness campaign wherein approximately 150 persons including women, children, vendors, drivers of auto rickshaws, cycle rickshaws and taxi attended the camp. The officials from AHTU, Women Police Station and PP-24 aware the audience about burning issue of POCSO and illegal activities in the society. They all were sensitized to share information with the police about any illegal activities like exploitation of women & Children by employing them against their wishes, pushing them for begging & prostitution etc. by making false promises
8.	27.01.2016	Anti Human Trafficking Unit (AHTU) and Women Police Station jointly organized a public awareness campaign wherein approximately 150 persons including women, children, vendors, drivers of auto rickshaws, cycle rickshaws and taxi attended the camp. The officials from AHTU, Women Police Station and PP-24 aware the audience about burning issue of POCSO and illegal activities in the society. They all were sensitized to share information with the police about any illegal activities like exploitation of women & Children by employing them against their wishes, pushing them for begging & prostitution etc. by making false promises
9.	1.2.2016	As per the D.O No 15011/111/2015- ATC dated 4 Dec-2015, from Home Secretary of India similar campaign titled 'Operation Smile- II from 1st January ,2016 to 31st January, 2016 be rolled throughout the country as follow up of the earlier campaigns. In this regard the following arrangements are made:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 24 teams have been formed for Operation Smile II. • These police officials of 24 teams have been sensitized on 28.12.15 with the collaboration of Chandigarh Commission for Protection of Child Right & Child Welfare Committee at Conference Hall, Snehalaya about various provisions of POCSO Act, JJ Act, Protection of Child right act, Advisories issued by MHA etc. • They were provided with photo camera and pen drives to get the particulars and photographs of the children staying at different shelter homes. • These teams visited the various places i.e Punjab, Haryana, Uttarakand, Uttar Pardesh, Rajasthan, Delhi, Mumbai, Gujrat, Himachal Pardesh, Madaya Pardesh, Kolkata ,Chandigarh etc. in search of missing children. The record of found children residing at different shelter homes was taken by these teams and following result was found:- <table border="1" style="margin-left: auto; margin-right: auto;"> <tr> <td>Traced During door to door survey</td> <td>31</td> <td>Boys-12 Girls-19</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Reunited with Parents</td> <td>16</td> <td>Boys-12 Girls-04</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Other State reunited</td> <td>10</td> <td>Boys-09 Girls-01</td> </tr> <tr> <td colspan="3" style="text-align: center;">Grand Total =57</td> </tr> </table>	Traced During door to door survey	31	Boys-12 Girls-19	Reunited with Parents	16	Boys-12 Girls-04	Other State reunited	10	Boys-09 Girls-01	Grand Total =57
Traced During door to door survey	31	Boys-12 Girls-19
Reunited with Parents	16	Boys-12 Girls-04
Other State reunited	10	Boys-09 Girls-01
Grand Total =57
10.	25.02.2016	Self Defence Training Programme for students by AHTU Anti human trafficking Unit of Chandigarh Police under the supervision of Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU organized self defence training for the students of St. Xavier Sr. Sec. School, sec- 44 C, Chd held from 4.2.16 to 25.02.16 and also at PEC university of Technology, Sector-

		12, Chandigarh from 08.02.16 to 19.02.16. Total 309 girls students have participated in this self defence programme. This was an initiative of Sh. R.P Upadhyay, IPS, IGP/UT/Chandigarh, to make the girls/women self dependent so that they can save themselves in case of any untoward incidents. During the training girls were imparted training on different techniques of defending themselves. They also gave various demos on eve teasing, chain snatching, & Knife protection, front fall, body hold & Neck hold. The training programme has been completed successfully.
11.	2.3.2016	During celebration of Women Empowerment Week by Chandigarh Police, today the Women & Child Support Unit & Anti Human Trafficking Unit under the supervision of Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU organized a Public awareness camp at Ramdarbar, Chandigarh wherein approximately 250 person including women & Children attended the camp. Insp. Gurjeet Kaur SHO, Women Police Station and resource person Ms. Mohinder Kaur Kataria enlightened the audience on various issue/problems related women & children. The important helpline numbers were also given to the general public to make calls in case of need. SI Sarbjit Kaur, AHTU appeal to public to share information with this unit about the exploitation of women and Children employed against their wishes. The public can contact the Anti Human Trafficking Unit (AHTU) and Women Police Station on phone No 0172-2704100 and 2700448.
12.	6.3.2016	The Chandigarh Police is observing the current week i.e. 1 st to 8 th march as WOMEN EMPOWERMENT WEEK. Today staff of Women Police Station and Anti- Human Trafficking Unit organised a rally between Sukhna Lake To Rock Garden on Women safety which have been flagged off by W/Senior Superintendent of Police, Chandigarh Police, in which more than 100 women cops participated along with placards displaying slogans: Break the Silence, Stop the Violence, DAHEJ KO KHATAM KRO, BETI KO NAHI, Educated Girls, Educated Future and many more to spread awareness among the general public.
13.	13.05.2016	Apprehension of accused in case FIR No.49 Dt.10.05.16 U/s 341, 376(2), 506 IPC and 4, 6, 8 of POSCO Act P.S. Sarangpur, Chandigarh. A case FIR No.49 Dt.10.05.16 U/s 341, 376(2), 506 IPC and 4, 6, 8 of POSCO Act P.S. Sarangpur, Chd. has been registered against a tuitor who had raped a minor girl at his residence in village Sanrangpur. After committing the crime, the accused was evading the arrest and his present whereabouts were not known to anyone & even his mobile phone was also switched off. Police immediately swung into action and raided different suspected hideouts of the accused but no fruitful result could be archived. On finding some vital clue about his presence at Gurgaon, Haryana. A Police Party dispatched there immediately and with their strenuous efforts, accused has been arrested from his cousin's house. During sustained interrogation, it came notice that he is also involved in a dowry death case at Phagwara. The above said rape case is being investigated by Women Police Station and the assistance of P.S. Sarangapur has been sought to crack this case
14.	13.05.2016	Free eye checking camp for the Chandigarh Police Officials On 13.05.16 Women Police Station & Anti Human Trafficking Unit under the kind supervision/guidance of Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU and in collaboration of HDFC Bank & Grewal Eye Institute organised a free eye checking camp for the Police Officials of Chandigarh Police in the premises of Home Guard Building, Sector-17, Chandigarh. The said camp was organised from 10.00 AM to 4.00 PM with the sincere efforts of Inspector Gurjeet Kaur, SHO, Women Police Station. In this camp, approximately 150 Police officers availed this free facility provided by the Grewal Eye Institute. During the camp faculties of HDFC has also informed about the various loans and other banking product to facilitates to Chandigarh Police personal at concessional rates offered by HDFC Bank

15.	15.5.2016	On 15.06.2016, the Anti Human Trafficking Unit and Women Police Station of Chandigarh Police organized a five days Youth Empowerment Camp for young females under the supervision of Smt. Anjitha Chepyala, DSP/W&CSU at Balmiki Dharamshala, Bapu Dham Colony, Sector 26, Chandigarh. Insp. Gurjeet Kaur, SHO/WPS, Insp. Reena Yadav I/C AHTU and SI Malook Singh I/C PP BDC attended the said camp. About 60 girls have attended this camp. Insp. Reena Yadav welcomed the gathering and Insp. Gurjeet Kaur SHO/WPS addressed the girls on Human Trafficking, women related issues & rights of women. Ms. Sangeeta Jund, Project Director Y.T.T.S. enlightened the life skills, personnel hygiene, self protection, nutrition diet etc to the attendees. SI Malook Singh I/S PP-BDC gave vote of thanks. In the furtherance of this camp, women & child support unit is going to organize the computer training programme for the youth in Police Lines, Sector 26, Chandigarh.
16.	25.05.2016	Seminar on the International Missing Children's day Anti Human Trafficking Unit of Chandigarh Police in association with District legal service authority, UT , Chd organised a seminar on the International Missing Children's day at Kendriya Vidhalaya, Sector- 31, Chandigarh to generate awareness on the topic Child Labour, Human Trafficking, Beggary and about missing children. Sh. Amrinder Sharma, CJM cum secretary, DLSA and Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU informed about the existing Legal provisions and activities being conducted by Chd. Police including the details of the Muskaan, Smile 1 Smile 2 initiatives. SI Sarbjit Kaur, AHTU enlightened the students that they should share information with this unit about the exploitation of Children employed against their wishes & important helpline numbers were also given to the students to make call in case of need. 60 students of L.S. technology, Sec- 31, Chd had attended the said programme. The public can contact the Anti Human Trafficking Unit (AHTU) to share the information on phone No 0172-2704100. Ms. Mohinder Kaur Kataria welcomed the chief guest and vote of thanks were given by Mr. Kulmeet Singh, Traffic Marshal, Chandigarh Police.
17.	01.06.2016	Inauguration of self defence training camp for the girls/women Anti Human Trafficking Unit and Women Police Station of Chandigarh Police under the supervision of Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU started self defence training camp for the girls/women at Multipurpose Hall, Police Lines, Sector-26, Chandigarh. Sh. Tajender Singh Luthra IPS, IGP/UT was the chief guest and inaugurated the camp on 01.06.2016. Dr. Sukhchain Singh Gill, IPS, SSP/UT along with other officers of Police Department was present on the occasion. The camp has been organized to make the girls/women self dependent so that they can save themselves in case of any untoward incident. The training will be for 15 days in two different batches w.e.f. 01.06.16 to 15.06.16 and 16.06.16 to 30.06.16 and timing of courses is 7:00 AM to 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM. The girls and women from different schools, colleges, work places and women police officials from IRB, Traffic and security have joined the training camp.

18.	05.07.2016	Self Defence Training Programme organized by Anti Human Trafficking Unit and Women Police Station of Chandigarh Police, for the girls/women of Chandigarh, was concluded on 05.07.2016 under the supervision of Sh. Davinder Sharma, DSP/W&CSU at Multi-purpose Hall, Sector 26, Chandigarh. Sh. Ravi Kumar, IPS, SP/Operations, UT, Chandigarh was the chief guest who distributed certificates to the participants and also addressed the gathering. The camp was organized to make the girls/women self dependent so that they can save themselves in case of any untoward incident. The training was for 15 days in two different batches w.e.f. 01.06.16 to 15.06.16 and 16.06.16 to 30.06.16. During self defence training, the girls/women were imparted training on different techniques of defending themselves. The various demos on eve-teasing, chain snatching, knife protection, front fall, body hold & neck hold were also performed. The girl/women and their parents appreciated the initiative and requested to arrange such more training programme in future. The function ended with vote of thanks.
19.	05.07.2016	Self Defence Training Programme organized by Anti Human Trafficking Unit and Women Police Station of Chandigarh Police, for the girls/women of Chandigarh, was concluded on 05.07.2016 under the supervision of Sh. Davinder Sharma, DSP/W&CSU at Multi-purpose Hall, Sector 26, Chandigarh. Sh. Ravi Kumar, IPS, SP/Operations, UT, Chandigarh was the chief guest who distributed certificates to the participants and also addressed the gathering. The camp was organized to make the girls/women self dependent so that they can save themselves in case of any untoward incident. The training was for 15 days in two different batches w.e.f. 01.06.16 to 15.06.16 and 16.06.16 to 30.06.16. During self defence training, the girls/women were imparted training on different techniques of defending themselves. The various demos on eve-teasing, chain snatching, knife protection, front fall, body hold & neck hold were also performed. The girl/women and their parents appreciated the initiative and requested to arrange such more training programme in future. The function ended with vote of thanks.
20.	04.11.2016	Women Safety Rally Women and Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police under the supervision of Sh. S.P.S. Sondhi, DSP/W&CSU organized an awareness programme at Plaza, Sector 17 during celebration of 7th Police Week by Chandigarh Police. Total 350 students from different schools and police officials attended the programme. During the programme, a play on the issues of child abuse, sexual assault and eve-teasing prevailing in the society was performed with the message to report the crime to police and a demonstration on Self Defense by police officials was also given to save oneself in case of any untoward incidents. At the end of the programme, the chief guest Sh. Eish Singhal (IPS), SSP/Sec. and Traffic addressed the gathering and flagged off the rally on Women Safety. The rally ended at Rose Garden.
21.	24.01.2017	Celebration of Nation Girl Child Day On dt. 24.01.17, Women and Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police under the supervision of Sh. Ravi Kumar Singh IPS, SP/Oprs/Chd celebrated National Girl Child Day at Plaza, Sector 17, Chd. Total 250 students from different schools and about 1000 public persons attended the programme. During celebration a flash mob and a skit was played on

		girl child related issues prevailing in the society. Smt. Madhu P. Singh, Social Activist and Mr. Manpreet Singh, Legal Advisor of ICICI Bank delivered lectures about the rights of girls. Sh. S.P.S. Sondhi, DSP/W&CSU also addressed the gathering and flagged off the rally displaying the play cards on safety of girl child. The rally ended at Rose Garden.
22.	24.01.2017	Celebration of Nation Girl Child Day On dt. 24.01.17, Women and Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police under the supervision of Sh. Ravi Kumar Singh IPS, SP/Oprs/Chd celebrated National Girl Child Day at Plaza, Sector 17, Chd. Total 250 students from different schools and about 1000 public persons attended the programme. During celebration a flash mob and a skit was played on girl child related issues prevailing in the society. Smt. Madhu P. Singh, Social Activist and Mr. Manpreet Singh, Legal Advisor of ICICI Bank delivered lectures about the rights of girls. Sh. S.P.S. Sondhi, DSP/W&CSU also addressed the gathering and flagged off the rally displaying the play cards on safety of girl child. The rally ended at Rose Garden.
23.	27.02.2017	On 27.10.2017, HC Gurwinder Singh of AHTU, has traced out a missing/abducted girl R/o Manimajra, Chadnigarh age about 15 years under case FIR No. 244/2016 U/S 363, 366 IPC, PS-MM, Chandigarh.
24.	01.03.2017 to 08.03.2017	International Women week celebrated by Women and Child Support Unit & AHTU from 01.03.2017 to 08.03.2017 Release of Annual Booklet 2016 of W&CSU and Awareness Programme Women and Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police celebrated International Women week wef 1.03.2017 to 08.03.2017 under the supervision of Sh. Ravi Kumar Singh IPS, SP/Oprs/Chandigarh. During this many awareness Programme were organized for general public. On 01.03.17 awareness programme at Dharmshala, vill. Khuda Lahora, Chd. has been organized. Total 100 women/girls had attended this programme. Mr. Rakesh Sharma, Sarpanch of Vill. Khuda Lahora welcomed the gathering. Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU addressed the women/girls and made them aware about the malices prevalent in the society in general and also those concerning the women and children in particular. They were also made aware about the initiative taken by Chandigarh Police to help women in distress. Insp Gurjeet Kaur SHO/Women Police Station sensitized them about Juvenile Justice Act, POCSO Act, Human Trafficking, Child related issues, child abuse and Apps launched by Chandigarh Police. They also requested to share such type of information with the police. Ms. Mohinder Kaur Kataria also enlightened the women/girls about their rights and duties. Mrs. Kiran Bala, Principal of Govt. Model Sr. Sec School, Khuda Lahora, Chd. appreciated the effort of Chandigarh Police. On 02.03.17 awareness programme at Railway Station has been organized. Total 100 general public had attended this programme. Insp Gurjeet Kaur SHO/Women Police Station sensitized about Women & Child related issues, child abuse and Apps launched by Chandigarh Police. They also requested to share such type of information with the police. Insp Maninder Singh I/C AHTU has addressed the gathering. Ms. Mohinder Kaur Kataria also enlightened the public about their rights and duties.

		On 03.03.17 awareness programme at Burail has been organized. Total 100 general public i.e men, women & Children had attended this programme. Insp Arti Goyal Insp/Women Police Station sensitized about public. Ms. Mohinder Kaur Kataria enlightened the public about Women & Child related issues, child abuse and Apps launched by Chandigarh Police. They also requested to share such type of information with the police. The programme was conducted with 'votes of thanks by Sh. Balwinder Sharma member of Sanatan Dharam Mandir, Burail, Chandigarh. On 04.03.17 awareness programme at Beant Singh Memorial parking, Sec- 42, Chandigarh has been organized. Total 100 general public i.e men, women & Children had attended this programme. Insp Gurjeet Kaur SHO/Women Police Station sensitized about Women & Child related issues, child abuse and Apps launched by Chandigarh Police. They also requested to share such type of information with the police. Yoga and Self Defence demo has also presented. Insp Maninder Singh I/C AHTU has addressed the gathering and sensitized about Human Trafficking. Ms. Mohinder Kaur Kataria enlightened the gathering. On 06.03.17 Women and Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police during the celebration of International Women Week, organized a painting Competition at Sorem School, Sec-36, Chd at under the supervision of Sh. Ravi Kumar Singh IPS, SP/Oprs/Chandigarh. Sh. Amrinder Sharma CJM/Chd. was the Chief Guest. Prizes have been distributed to winners. Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU, Insp Gurjeet Kaur SHO/WPS and Insp. Maninder Singh I/C AHTU have also attended the said programme. On 07.03.2017 W&CSU has organized two awareness programme under the supervision of Sh. Ravi Kumar Singh, IPS, SP/Oprs/Chandigarh, one at PGI, Nursing Institute, Sec-12, Chd. Total 120 Students had attended this programme. Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU addressed the gathering and made them aware about the malice prevalent in the society against women & children. They were also made aware about the initiative taken by Chandigarh Police to help women in distress. Insp Gurjeet Kaur SHO/Women Police Station sensitized them about Women & Child related issues and child abuse. They also requested to share such type of information with the police. Annual Booklet 2016 of W&CSU has been released by W/SSP/UT/Chandigarh Dr. Eish Singhal, IPS in the presence of W/SP/Operations Sh. Ravi Kumar, IPS, DSP/W&CSU, DSP/Cyber Crime and DSP/Central. Dr. Eish Singhal, IPS/SSP/HQ Chandigarh flagged off the cycle rally, organized at Women Police Station ending at Rose Garden. Total 70 Lady constable have been participated displaying the placards on safety of girl child and other women related issues. Besides above Self Defense Programme was at Ryan International School (Total 50 students have been participated) from 03.03.17 to 07.03.17.
25.	20.03.2017	On 28.02.2017 email was received regarding admitting of new child from Snehalaya, Maloya, Chandigarh After deep scrutiny of the documents of these children, H/C Gurbinder Singh traced the parental address of said children in Nepal. He personally visited the address #130 Sector-38, Chandigarh at the home of both children and informed the uncle about Master Ayte & Master Hume lodged at Snehalaya. (after completing the documentation formalities child will be handed over to his parents shortly). The counseling of child was done by AHTU team. HC Gurbinder Singh 3187/CP also traced the parents of Master Ayte and Master Hume.

26.	22.04.2017	Awareness Programme by AHTU An awareness programme was organized at CTP, Sector 23, Chandigarh for students of Govt. High School, Hallo Majra, Chandigarh in which total 50 students attended this programme. They were sensitized about Human Trafficking, Child Abuse, Child related issues and apps launched by Chandigarh Police. They were also requested to share such type of information with the police.
27.	29.04.2017	Missing Children traced out by AHTU During door to door survey 8 missing children were found traced by AHTU who were missing in the eight cases. Besides this on 29.03.2017 email received from Snehalaya to trace the parents of missing boy. With the efforts of Chandigarh Police the address of missing boy was traced and information given to parents of missing boy. The child was handed over to parents after necessary verification and documentation.
28.	02.05.2017	In order to instill confidence and bring about the change in the state of mind that the girls can take on the challenges imposed on them in their day to day life, Women & Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police organized a Self Defense programme under the leadership of Sh. Tajender Singh Luthra, IPS, DGP/UT/Chandigarh and under the supervision of Sh. Ravi Kumar Singh IPS, SP/Oprs/Chandigarh. This programme envisions to cover all the schools in Chandigarh both private and Govt. Schools. In addition to schools & colleges W&CSU also plans to conduct such programmes for female employees. Sh. Ravi Kumar Singh IPS, SP/Oprs/Chandigarh inaugurated the programme at Govt. Model High School, Sector-29-A, Chandigarh and enlightened the audience about the need of self defense in daily life. Mr. Rajesh Kumar Ranchan, Principal of Govt. Model High School, Sector-29-A, Chandigarh appreciated the initiative of Chandigarh Police and requested to arrange such more training programme in future. The function ended with vote of thanks.
29.	29.05.2017	Health Screening Check-Up Camp Women & Child Support Unit is going to organize the Health Screening Check-Up Camp for female under the "Asha Jyoti Scheme" with the collaboration of Dr. N.K Khandelwal, Head of the Deptt. Of Radiology, PGI, Chandigarh on 30.05.2017 from 8.30 AM onwards at Women Police Station, Sec- 17, Chandigarh. All Women employees posted in all Police Stations/Units and the wives of police personnel's are invited for this free check up in Home Guard Building, Sec- 17, Chandigarh.
30.	05.07.2017	Women & Child Support Unit of Chandigarh police has organized Summer Camp 'SWAYAM' Self Defence Training programme for the women/Girls of Chandigarh, in order to make them self dependent to face any untoward incident. This training was organised during the summer vacations from 30.05.17 to 02.07.17 in two batches. Total 250 women/girls of all the age of 5 yrs to 54 yrs have participated in the programme. The Closing function was held today i.e. 05.07.17 at Multipurpose Hall Sec. 26 Chandigarh. Sh. Tajender Singh Luthra, IPS, DGP, UT, Chandigarh was the chief guest of the function, who addressed the gathering. Sh. Alok Kumar, IPS, DIG/UT, Sh. Eish Singhal, IPS, SSP/UT, Sh. Ravi

		Kumar Singh, IPS, SP/Operations, Sh. Roshan Lal, SP/Communications and Law & Order and the children along with their parents attended the function. The participants gave various demos on self defence techniques, skit on sexual harassment at workplace. DGP/UT also distributed the certificate to the participants. This effort of Chandigarh police was highly appreciated by the participants and their parents. They requested to continue such type of programme in future also. Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU also assured that the programme of self defence will be organised in other schools, Collages and working women institution in near future. At the end of the ceremony Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU gave the vote of thanks to the present senior officers and to the participants and their parents.
31.	15.07.2017	Self Defence Training The Women and Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police has started conducting one week Self-Defence training program for girls in different schools of Chandigarh Administration from May, 2017. During this week total 545 girl students of Govt. Model Sr. Sec. School, Sector-18, Govt. Model Sr. Sec. School, Sector-19, Govt. Model Sr. Sec. School, Sector-20-D, Govt Model Sr. Sec. School, Sector-20-B, Chandigarh and Govt. Model Sr. Sec. School, Sector-23-A, Chandigarh has been trained about the self defence techniques. The girl students have been taught how to protect themselves and to respond in any crisis situation in an appropriate way. The motive of the program is to build self-confidence to deal with any untoward incident and lead safer life. Self defence training will continue in future also.
32.	13.09.2017	Anti Human Trafficking Unit of Chandigarh Police has organized an awareness programme on Human Trafficking, Child Labour and Help lines run by Chandigarh Police under the supervision of Smt. Anjitha Chepyala DSP/W&CSU, Sec- 17, Chandigarh. Awareness programme was organized at two different places of ISBT, Sec-17, Chandigarh i.e. Paid taxi stand and near PP- ISBT- 17 . Total 75 general public, auto drivers, bus drivers, vendors, cycle rickshaws and taxi driver attended this programme. Moreover, on 11.09.17 missing data of 95 children were received from MOB and in this regard 03 teams have been prepared for door to door survey, in which 15 children were found traced and presently residing with their parents.
33.	23.10.2017	AHTU of Chd Police traceout the parents of found/missing boy Anti Human Trafficking Unit of W&CSU received an email on 17.10.17 from Snehalaya to trace out the parents of master Karan, who was got admitted in Snehalaya on 23.09.17 under the found/missing category. On this the team of AHTU visited Snehalaya and interacted with the found child Karan. The team of AHTU worked hard to extract information from him. During interaction Karan disclosed that he is from Balongi but did not know the proper address. So, the team of AHTU took the child to Balongi and made efforts with the locals for identification of the child. After sincere efforts the team of AHTU succeeded in tracing the parents i.e. Father Beer Singh and mother Guddi Devi of Karan. Today, master Karan has been reunited with his parents after following the proper procedure before Child Welfare Committee, Chandigarh.

34.	03.11.2017	Police Week: Awareness program related women issues and children safety During 8th Chandigarh Police Week, Women and Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police organized an Awareness program at Plaza, Sector-17 Chandigarh related women issues and children safety under the guidance of Sh. Ravi Kumar IPS, SP/Oprs. Dr. O.P. Mishra IPS, W/DIGP was the Chief Guest on this occasion. A play on 'Nari Shakti' by College students (highlighting women's to raise their voices against violence) and a skit on child abuse by school children was also performed during the programme. A Self Defence demo was also displayed by girl students of Govt. Sr. Sec. School Karsan, Ram Darbar & Vill. Kaimbwala. At the end of the programme, Dr. O.P. Mishra IPS, W/DIGP addressed the gathering. In the evening W&CSU Unit also organized a Rally on Women Safety at EWS Colony, Dhanas. In which 150 lady cops participated with placards in their hands giving message on social evils as well as for Women Empowerment.
35.	18.11.2017	Awareness Campaign 'Make my Chandigarh child friendly' Today the Women and Child Support Unit of Chandigarh Police in collaboration of State legal Services Authority Chandigarh organized a program with the theme 'Make my Chandigarh child friendly' in pursuance of the 10th days campaign 'Connecting to Serve' launched by the State legal Services Authority, Chandigarh. During the program various items were performed. A Nukkad Natak on Child Abuse was played by the students of Legal Aid Clinic, Punjab University. The 'Swayam' self defence team of Chandigarh Police also performed different techniques to save from an untoward incidents. At the end Sh. Mahavir Singh, Secretary, State legal Services Authority, Chandigarh aware the general public about the free legal aid facilities available. Smt. Anjita Chepalaya DSP/W&CSU also made the general public aware about 'Swayam' self defence training team, an initiative of Chandigarh Police for safety of Children and girls and encouraged the general public to be a part of 'Swayam'. Retd. DGP Sh. V.K Kapoor appreciated the efforts of Chandigarh Police and 'Swayam' team.

36.	08.12.2017	Awareness Programme on Human Trafficking and Child Labour On 08.12.2017 an awareness programme on Human Trafficking and Child Labour Awareness was organized at Govt. Model School, Hallo Majra, Chandigarh by team of AHTU & W&CSU of Chandigarh Police. Total 98 persons including children attended this programme.
37.	08.01.2018	Good work of AHTU & W&CSU between 08.01.2018 to 14.01.2018 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On 10.01.2018 Awareness programmed was organized by AHTU on Human Tracfficking and Child Labour at Rehri Market, Sector 19, Chandigarh. Total 150 person including children attended this awareness programme. • During door to door survey total 6 children were found traced between age group of 6 to 17 years. • Sincere efforts and counseling was done to the parties having matrimonial disputes in which 36 parties and 229 person attended by police station staff. Total 20 complaints have been disposed off during the week, out of which 08 couple have decided to live together after counseling by Women Police Station.
38.	28.01.2018	Awareness Programme on Human Trafficking and Child Labour An awareness programme on Human Trafficking and Child Labour Awareness programme was organized at Govt. Model High School, Indira Colony, Manimajra, Chandigarh in which total 1000 students attended the programme.
39.	30.01.2018	Child reunited with parents with efforts of AHTU team Anti Human Trafficking Unit of W&CSU received an email from Snehalaya to trace out the parents of master Shiva @ Bunty & Raju @ Namajish, who were got admitted in Snehalaya under the found/missing category. On this the team of AHTU visited Snehalaya and interacted with the found children. During interaction Shiva@ Bunty disclosed that he is from Lucknow but did not know the proper address. After getting some clue, the team of AHTU personally visited LuCknow. After sincere efforts the team of AHTU succeeded in tracing the parents from lucknow. Further, about another child namely Raju, who is a special child with low I. Q, the team of AHTU has worked hard to extract information from him and traced his parents. Now, Master Shiva @ Bunty and Raju have been reunited with their parents with the concerted efforts of Anti Human Trafficking Unit, Sec- 17, Chandigarh under the guidance of DSP/W&CSU, Sec- 17, Chd and after following the proper procedure before Child Welfare Committee, Chd.
40.	03.02.2018	Awareness Programme on Human Trafficking and Child Labour

		An awareness programme on Human Trafficking and Child Labour Awareness programme was organized at Panchayat Bhawan, Village Dariya, Chandigarh in which total 140 persons from general public attended the programme.
41.	15.01.2018	An awareness programme on Human Trafficking and Child Labour Awareness programme was organized at Govt. Sr. Sec. School, Sector 44B, Chandigarh in which total 400 students attended the programme.