

PRESS RELEASE
30.05.2013

The UT Police launched the Crime and Criminal Tracking Network System (CCTNS) at Police Station Sector 31 on 30.05.2013. The Project was formally inaugurated by Sh. Shiv Charan, IPS, SP/City, Chandigarh. This is 4th Police Station where CCTNS project has been launched successfully to meet the objectives for creation of nation-wide networking infrastructure for evolution of IT-enabled sophisticated tracking system around 'investigation of crime and detection of criminals. The project will help the police in tracking crime and criminals.

Sh. Rajesh Kalia, DSP/Cyber Cell-cum- Assist. Nodal Officer, CCTNS Project Chandigarh, Sh. Surjit Singh Malik, SDPO/South, SHO Police Station 31, 36, 39 and representatives from M/s Vayamtech Ltd. (SI) & M/s KPMG (SPMU) were present during this event.

Issued by
Chandigarh Police