

PRESS RELEASE
23.06.2015

On the directions of Home Secretary Govt. of India, New Delhi, Anti Human Trafficking unit of Chandigarh Police is going to launch a drive on 'Operation Muskan' w.e.f. 01.07.2015 to 31.07.2015 to trace and rescue missing Children and connect them with their families. In this regard training programme was conducted for the police officials. During this programme, Mr. Atul Yadav, Dy.S.P from Gahziabad Police shared his experience about Operation Smile launched by them which was a very successful one. Ms. Tabasum Khan and Ms. Pooja from U.T. Child Protection Society, addressed the police officials regarding interview of children to extract maximum information from them and regarding the procedure to be adopted whenever any child is traced in other districts.

Sh. Amarjit Singh Cheema, D.I.G., U.T. Chandigarh, also addressed the police officials and sensitized them on the issue of missing children and feel the pain of the parents whose children has gone missing. He motivated the police officials to involve in the task of tracing and reuniting the missing children to their parents with full devotion and dedication. This was an initiative of Sh. R.P. Upadhyaya, IPS, IGP, U.T. Chd, Sh. Amarjit Singh Cheema, IPS, D.I.G.UT Chd, Ms. Urvija Goel, SP Oprs. and Sh. Parvinder Singh, SP City, Chd. Smt Kamla Meena delivered vote of thanks.

Issued by Chandigarh Police