

PRESS NOTE

27.04.2016

IGP initiative "YUVASHAKTI" 'A Community Policing Initiative by Chandigarh Police for Youth Skill Development'

Today, i.e 27.04.2016, Sh. Tajender Singh Luthra, IPS, Inspector General of Police, UT, Chandigarh inaugurated Skill Development programme for the youth/children of colony, Sector 25, Chandigarh at the Community Center, Sector-25, Chandigarh. Dr. Sukhchain Singh Gill, IPS, Senior Superintendent of Police, UT, Chandigarh along with other officers of Chandigarh Police was present on this occasion.

A Community Policing Initiative "YUVASHAKTI" is a Skill Development training programme for the youth of colonies who will be imparted with skill oriented courses like plumbing, electrician and other skills. Initially 108 youths/children will be trained over a period of 120 days free of cost. IGP/UT in his speech said 'these kinds of training will enable the youth to learn skilled courses and will open door for their better livelihood'. IGP/UT appealed to the parents for sending & motivates their children to attend skill development training programme. All the parents appreciated this initiative taken by Chandigarh Police. SSP/UT gave vote of thanks.

Issued by Chandigarh Police